Supreme Court of Canada affirmed that the Treaty of 1752 is still strong. The Mi'kmaq are still protected by its terms and we call upon Her Majesty to honour this Treaty and others made with the Mi'kmaq Nation. On this 23rd year thereafter as "Treaty Day" to commemorate the unique and special relationship that exists between the Mi'kmaq and Her Majesty.

PROCLAIMED at Halifax, Nova Scotia, this the 1st day of October A.D. 1986.

Dancers & Drummers welcome to participate in All Treaty Day celebrations
